Mayor's Office

PROCLAMATION

I, JEFF LEHMAN, Mayor of the City of BARRIE,

do hereby proclaim

December 11, 2017 to December 17, 2017

as

Salvation Army Week

- WHEREAS; The Salvation Army is the largest non-governmental provider of social services in Canada, providing food, clothing and shelter to those who need it most. Each year, The Salvation Army looks after the needs of 400 Canadian communities and helps more than 1.9 million Canadians; and
- WHEREAS; Through its shelter program, community meals, life-skills training, pastoral care, emergency services and the provision of practical assistance, The Salvation Army in Barrie provides much needed help and hope to our most vulnerable members of society; and
- WHEREAS; Its annual Christmas Kettle campaign seeks to raise funds for its social programs and hundreds of bell ringers will ring their bells and collect donations throughout our great City of Barrie. The goal of this year's campaign is to raise $505,000.
- THEREFORE, I, Jeff Lehman, Mayor of the City of Barrie, do hereby proclaim December 11 to December 17, 2017 as "Salvation Army Week" in the City of Barrie and encourage everyone to support the Salvation Army during this holiday season.

Jeff Lehman,
Mayor
