PRESENTATION

5. Dragger 5000 Drug Test Demonstration

Constable Hale from the traffic unit attended to provide a demonstration of the Dragger 5000. This device is the only approved drug screening device which tests for drugs in saliva. This device only detects THC (Cannabis) and cocaine. The Barrie Police Service was able to buy this device with assistance of a provincial grant which cut the cost in half.

Councillor Shipley volunteered to assist with the demonstration, which took approximately 5 minutes to complete.

Inspector Johnston and Constable Hale left the meeting at 9:26 a.m.

6. Report on Statistics

Deputy Chief Weatherill provided a PowerPoint presentation giving an overview of the monthly statistics for February 2018. A spike in overtime was seen in February due to the joint Human Trafficking investigation with OPP.
