

The New Nature Centre Project

City of Barrie

January 13th, 2020

Connect

Sparking imagination TODAY and empowering the environmental champions of TOMORROW.

Lake Simcoe
Conservation
Foundation

The Nature Centre Project

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/sZ1tGT3hjMU>

The Nature Centre at Scanlon Creek

Current Nature Centre

Inspired Design: Nature Centre 2022

LSRCA Outdoor Education

- A healthier Lake Simcoe watershed
- Connecting kids to Nature
- An engaged and connected watershed community

Connect

The Benefits of Outdoor Education

- Improves mental and physical health
- Boosts academic achievement
- Gets children physically active
- Shapes future generations of watershed champions

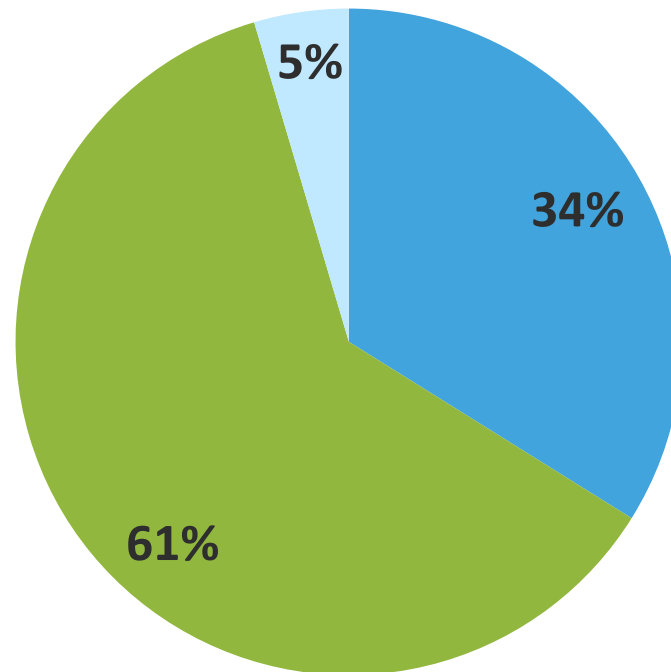

2019 School Program Stats

Participation By School Board

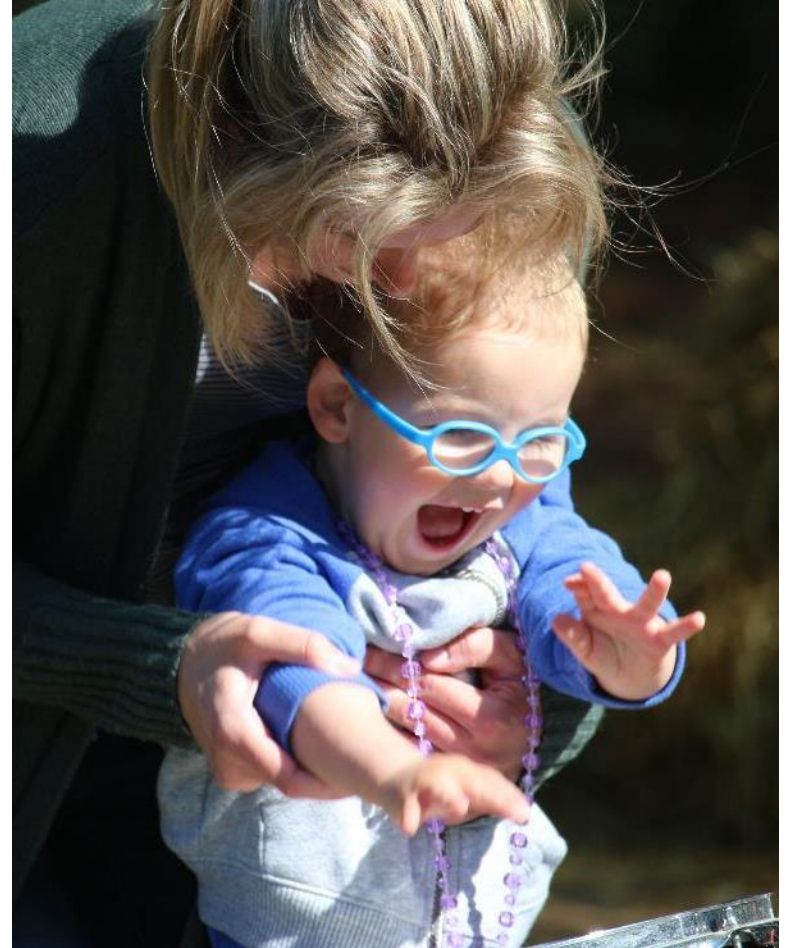

■ York Region ■ Simcoe County ■ Private / Other

Almost 25%
of participants from Barrie Schools

Therapy in the Woods

- Award winning Community Program
- Partnership with Royal Victoria Regional Health Centre
- Designed to support early learners with sensory and physical challenges
- Reduce barriers to outdoor experiences

The Current Nature Centre

- 3 re-purposed portables
- 2 classrooms
- 2,800 sq ft of space
- Capacity for 60
- Inadequate washroom and storage
- 1980's style
- At the end of its life cycle

The New Nature Centre: Inspired Design

- Approx. $6.5 million project
- Grand opening in 2022
- Over 8,000 sq ft of space
- Capacity for 250
- Built using sustainable design
- 3 flexible multi use rooms
- Will attract 15,000 annually

Connect Campaign Status

Raised:
$1.2 Million

City of Barrie Request

$150,000

QUESTIONS?

Mike Walters, CAO
Lake Simcoe Conservation
Authority

Cheryl Taylor, Executive Director
Lake Simcoe Conservation
Foundation

Lisa Spinks, Campaign Manager
Lake Simcoe Conservation
Foundation

www.scanloncreek.ca