The Active Transportation and Sustainability Committee met and reports as follows:

EXPLORING DEVELOPMENT OF AN ACTIVE TRANSPORTATION APPLICATION FOR MOBILE DEVICES

Brett Gratrix, Transportation Planning Lead referred to previous discussions of the Committee regarding an Active Transportation Mobile app, whereas, Brent Harlow, Manager of GIS was invited to speak on some requirements, challenges, and opportunities.

The Committee discussed data retrievals from existing applications used, such as Strava and Google, for analysis to understand some of the trends and patters concerning cycling routes, walking routes, and other active transportation. Other data analysis information discussed were the tracking of times to reach a destination and how long spent at a location.

The Committee asked questions regarding the existing applications that were mentioned, as well as their uses, their capabilities, other data retrievals and analysis, and were provided answers.

OFFICIAL PLAN FEEDBACK FOLLOW-UP

Tomasz Wierzba, Planner discussed the Committee's submissions into the Official Plan draft and provided an update on the Transportation Master Plan. He talked about the anticipated growth and the increasing population of the city. Mr. Wierzba indicated that the previous Transportation Master Plan was not based on that level of growth, whereas the current Transportation Master Plan will need to be revisited. Mr. Wierzba discussed arterial roads as freight supportive quarters and how putting active transportation on those roads would be challenging. He indicated road designs were being implemented within the pending Urban Design Guidelines to identify what type of infrastructure could be implemented within the Transportation Master Plan to consider all additional growth.

Members of the Committee asked questions and were provided responses from City staff.

CROMPTON PARK SUBCOMMITTEE

This matter was deferred to the next meeting.
